

The Accessible Information Standard is here.

This applies to all NHS and adult social care organisations.

The Accessible Information Standard is a new law to make sure that people who have a disability, impairment or sensory loss are given information they can easily read or understand.

The Accessible Information Standard tells NHS and adult social care organisations they must make sure people get information in different formats such as:

The Standard requires our Trust to do 5 things:

Please tell a member of staff if you have any communication support needs. You can help us make sure we get things right for you
